PETITIONING THE COURT

- [X] To issue a warrant
[] To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

1. The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.'

On February 2, 2009, the offender was arrested and charged by the Jersey City Police Department with Possession with Intent to Distribute CDS Near School Property; Distributing CDS within 500 of Public Housing; and Receiving Stolen Property. Authorities received information that Covington and Ernest Fredericks were in possession of keys to a vacant apartment at the Lexington Manor Apartments, were stashing narcotics in the empty apartment, and were making narcotics transactions in the building hallway. Building management advised police that no one should have access to the vacant apartment in question. When police approached Covington, he was observed dropping a set of keys to the vacant apartment. Inside the apartment, police recovered a black plastic bag containing 54 white-capped glass vials of cocaine.

2. The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.'

The offender was arrested with Ernest Fredericks on February 2, 2009. This individual has five prior felony convictions, and the offender did not have permission to associate with him.

3. The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'The offender failed to pay his $100 special assessment penalty which was due immediately.'

The offender has a $35 balance due on the special assessment.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
